

An oil painting by Jolanda Richter. In the foreground, a woman with long dark hair is draped in a vibrant magenta cloth, her head tilted back and eyes closed in a state of bliss or longing. She is positioned near a body of water with dark rocks. In the background, another woman in a light blue dress floats upside down in a cloudy sky, surrounded by a shower of pink petals. The overall mood is dreamlike and ethereal.

"Dare to the edge of longing". Oil on canvas, 60 x 80 cm, 2016

JOLANDA RICHTER, painting and graphics

Jolanda Richter was born in 1971 in Almelo, Netherlands. At the age of three the family moved to Hamburg, later at the age of six to Vienna. She soon engaged in art and music and was subsequently admitted into the prestigious 'University of Music and Performing Arts Vienna', where she studied cello for five years. Since childhood Jolanda also displayed remarkable rendering skills, but music and performances consumed her time. Longing to paint, she enrolled at the 'University of Applied Arts Vienna' in 1994, in the master-class for painting and graphics, from which she graduated in 1999. Since 1993 Jolanda partook in numerous exhibitions in group shows and individual shows throughout Europe and the USA. Currently Jolanda Richter lives and works as freelance-artist near Vienna, Austria.
